

Hello all from the world of Alateen.

Things are a little quieter right now since the completion of Recertifications the end of May. Some of the Alateen groups are still struggling but the AMIAS are showing up at the meeting time in case they do have a teen show up. Fort Dodge Alateen is still going strong. The newly formed Friday Night Step Study in West Des Moines is having 3 or 4 in attendance. I've made suggestions to the AMIAS on ways for them to get their meeting information out into the public.

The Iowa Area World Service Committee (AWSC) sent out a survey to CMA's in districts currently without DR's. This survey resulted with 75% of them voting yes on the need for Alateen groups, 25% voting maybe and 0% no.

We have a tentative date set for April 4,5 & 6 for the 2025 Alateen Serenity Weekend. We are going to try and have it a little earlier in the month next year so that it will not interfere with Prom and other end of school events. Right now I am not looking to keep everything else the same as in last April as it seemed to work pretty well. But of course this will be open to change.

Lovingly In Alateen,
Judy V.
